ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

The main task of design is to find optimal architectural solutions, use various techniques, select materials to create comfortable and aesthetic conditions for life, work and rest.

PROJECT DESIGN DEVELOPMENT

The development of a design project involves changing the layout and organizing the interior space of the premises, choosing the best color and lighting solutions, effectively redistributing areas, selecting materials and furniture for future renovation.

AUTHOR'S SUPERVISION

Author's supervision is a type of quality control that identifies shortcomings in the implementation of design solutions. It is carried out at the construction stage. The designer monitors the compliance of construction work with the provisions of the design, working and estimate documentation.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Recognizing the need is the primary condition for design.

White Fasade

The characteristic features of the classicism style are monumentality, majestic simplicity, solemnity, harmony of lines and volumes. Symmetrical-axial compositions and restraint of decorative decoration are characteristic of classicism. The use of some order is obligatory for the facade, often entire colonnades create an airy volume of galleries and porticoes.

Timeless elegance, refined details, and harmonious proportions — our classical interiors are designed to evoke a sense of grandeur and sophistication. Inspired by the aesthetics of European traditions, we create spaces that combine symmetry, rich textures, and noble materials.

Each project is tailored to the client's vision, balancing historical authenticity with modern comfort. From intricate moldings and ornate ceilings to luxurious furniture and curated décor, our classical interiors celebrate tradition with a contemporary touch.

Rooted in tradition and enriched by craftsmanship, our classic interiors embody timeless beauty and enduring style. We bring to life spaces that resonate with warmth, balance, and elegance, drawing inspiration from neoclassical and traditional European design.

Ornate detailing, rich color palettes, natural materials, and artisanal finishes are thoughtfully combined to create interiors that are both luxurious and livable. Each project reflects our commitment to harmony, comfort, and timeless sophistication.

CLASSIC

The classic kitchen style embodies timeless elegance and functionality. Characterized by neutral color palettes, detailed cabinetry, and natural materials such as wood and stone, it creates a warm and inviting atmosphere. Crown moldings, traditional hardware, and balanced symmetry add to its refined look. Ideal for those who appreciate a blend of tradition and comfort, the classic kitchen remains a popular choice for its enduring appeal and adaptability.
